THE BRIDGE CELEBRATION.

All Bendy for the Great Demonstration in East Washington, This is a great day in East Washington. For some time elaborate preparations have been made for the celebra-Hon of the opening of the new bridge that marks the spot where stood the old structure which was burned during the administration of President Madi-son in 1814 to prevent the British troops from entering the city at that point. The British, however, got here all the same, and in revenge for the burning of the bridge applied the torch to the White House and some of the Government buildings.

The programme arranged for to day's celebration by the executive committee of the East Washington Citizens' Association, as published in The Chiric of Saturday, is as follows: A military parade, starting at 4 p. m. from Fourand a half street and Pennsylvania avenue, and a salute of seventy six guns Bred from the bridge. From 5 to 6 p. m. the exercises upon the grand stand will consist of an opening prayer by the Rev. Thomas B. Hughes of St. Theresa's Church, Anscostia; address by District Commissioner Hine; reading of poem, "The Old Burnt Bridge," by George Francis Dawson: oration by Hon. Jonathan H. Rowell, and benediction by the Rev. James W. Clark, rector of St. James' Church.

The undersigned, residents and property holders of the District of Co-lumbia, brespective of party considerations and affiliations, beg leave to say that we have fearned with extreme regret that the Hon. L. G. Hine has tendered his resignation as a member of the Board of Commissioners of sald District, and of the causes that led to that step,
"We do not wish to be understood as the Engineer member of the Board, or as taking any part in the matters of differences which unfortunately have arisen, or to impute to Colonel Robert. any purpose to do other than what he conscientiously deems to be his duty, but we do desire to say that Mr. Hine's known ability as a lawyer and as a business man, his bigh character for integrity and his knowledge of the affairs of the District, suggest the importance of retaining his services as Commissioner, if possible. It will not be an The body of Ja casy task to find another who will acand who will have the confi

"If a change must be made in the board we venture to suggest, without reflecting in any way upon the ability or motives of Colonel Robert, that i would be easier and better for the pub lic service to make a new selection from among the Engineer Corps of the Army, if by doing so the services of Mr. Hine can be retained.

"We beg to assure you that we are not actuated in making this suggestion by any consideration other than a desire to promote the welfare of the District."

SHOT BY AN OUTSIDER.

Bricks and Stones and Finalty a Re-

John Jackson while drunk yesterday quarreled with John Johnson. Both are colored. Johnson was standing in front of his house on Pierce street, near New Jersey avenue, when Jackson came along and tried to pick a fight. The latter became abusive, and Johnson asked that he go away from the house. As he did not show any disposition to do so Johnson picked up a brick and threw it at him. Jackson, in retaliation, picked up a bble stone and was about to throw of Johnson, when George Johnson came onning out of the door with a revolve n his hand and shot at Jackson twice ne of the bullets struck him in the cheek, causing an ugly wound. He was taken to his borne in Ridgo street alley and attended by Dr. English. The Johnsons were arrested and locked up at the Fifth street station.

Submitted to the Commissioners, Mrs. M. S. Pomeroy, president of the National Association for the Relief of Destitute Colored Women and Children, has submitted her annual report to the Commissioners. The report shows that during the year $10,000 was expended for provisions, fuel instruction, etc., and $3,187,07 for salaries. The average daily number of beneficiaries cared for was 150.

Mrs. M. F. Harlan of the Woman's

Christian Association has also submitted her annual report, showing that $5,618.73 had been expended for provisions, fuel, etc., and $1,211 for sala-ries. The daily average number of persons cared for was fifty-two.

The Influence of Faith.

The Rev. John M. Worrall, pastor of the Thirteenth street Presbyterian Church of New York city, addressed a large audience yesterday afternoon in the symnasium at Y. M. C. A. Hall, upon the subject, "The Impulsive Power of a Look at the Unseen." He said that Faith is the subject of the unseen, and to him who believes God's word the unseen is far more real than that which is seen. A missionary meet-ing will be held at the hall on to morrow evening.

Young vs. Beiger.

To-night, at Kernan's Theatre, Billy Young will meet Mike Bolger in a friendly exhibition of the manly art of self-defense. It has been reported that bad blood exists between these two mea. Inquiry proves that there is a feud of ong standing between them, but they will not be afforded an opportunity to settle it in this exhibition. Manager Kernan in extending the series of spar-ring exhibitions is determined to permit nothing that may be regarded as a alugging match.

God's."

Dr. Hawthorne in the course of his serion attacked the appointment of chaplains to Congress, the Army and Navy, and the State Legislatures. "It is a custom," he said, 'that strikes at the very first principles of free government. The Government can just as consistently appoint a Mahomeulan or a Moslem to a chaptainey in the Army as a Presbyterian or a Baptist. If there is one man more than another who needs the benefit of public worship it is the average Congressman."

But it is not the duty of the Govern-

But it is not the duty of the Govern-ment to provide for him the spiritual help. Members of Congress and officers of the Army and Navy should take money from their own pockets to pay the man whom they choose to lead them in their morning devotions.

A Beath That Needs Investigation, The body of Jane Gibson, a colored woman, was found scalded to death in her cabin on Franklin street, Alexandria, late Saturday night, and the police of that city have been making a thorough investigation. There were evidences of foul play, as the body was found lying outside the house, and was badly scalded above the waist. The coroner yesterday summoned a jury, but after viewing the body and listening to the testimony could only reach the verdict that the woman had been mysteriously scalded to death.
